Action of Korea's Emperor in Seeking Liberty.

HE WILL ABDICATE.

This Action Marks the End of the Hermit Kingdom's Existence as an Independent Nation.

Seoul, July 18 .- The Korean pre mier has asked the emperor of Kores to abdicate because of his action in sending a deputation to The Hague,

The request that the emperor abdi cate apparently is the beginning of the end of this ancient empire and the inauguration of a closer control by Japan than that she has exercised since the treaty of Portsmouth recog nized her predominant influence in the Hermit Kingdom as one of the fruits of her victory over Russia.

For a long period Korea was under the surerainty of China, but in 1894-5 Japan drove China out of the penin sula and Korea enjoyed a brief period of independence, in 1904 Japan stepped into Korean affairs with as surances of safety, independence and territorial integrity, but since that year the Japanese influence has grown until to-day Korea faces, in the abdication of the present emperor the final extinction of her claims to recognition as an independent state for the installation of a nominal em peror, selected by the statesmen of Japan, seems to indicate that Korea is to come entirely under the sway of the Japanese.

This crisis in Korean affairs does not come as a surprise. For several days the situation in the peninsula has pointed to just such an outcome and the sending of a deputation to the peace conference at The Hague to protest against Japan's attitude to ward Korea weakened the Korean throne more than anything that has occurred since the assassination of the queen in 1895. Viscount Hayashi, the Japanese foreign minister, left Tokio a few days ago for Seoul to untangle the knot caused by this latest Korean intrigue, and there was reason to believe that his visit would bring about a radical change in the situa-

The emperor recently has been to be living in a small building quitapart from his court and to have vir tually withdrawn from all intercourse with the high officials of the empire He is unaware of the predicament into which his country has been plunged

Of aspirants to the Korean throne there are four. The crown prince is regarded as incompetent. Prince Pak-Yun Ho, who is supposed to be sup ported by Marquis Ito and who recent ly has been brought back from exite is pro-Japanese, as is Prince Yi Cheung Yong, another exile, who has been awaiting developments at Fusan since July 14. Prince Ewa candidate, also is considered to be a protege of the Japanese.

The emperor of Korea was 56 years old in September, 1906. He was called to the throne in 1864, when he was 13 He was married at the age of 15,

New York, July 1s .- In view of the widespread publicity given the plans of Klaw & Erlanger for the acquisi tion of European theatres and possi ble confusion regarding the scope of the enterprise, A. L. Erlanger on Wednesday gave out the following state

"The $100,000,000 corporation which being formed and in connection with which Levy Mayer, our counsel, sailed for Europe Tuesday, is entirely separ ate from the United States Amuse ment Co, and from the so-called theatrical syndicate, and will be in no sense a merger of existing theatrical organizations. It has a wholly disfinct purpose—the purchase of the atrical realty all over the world. We have been offered a great many theatres in different parts of Europe and if the terms can be agreed upon, we shall purchase the properties outright and conduct those theatres on the American system. Our principal obect is the purchase of big vaudeville

"No one excepting the parties con nected with our negotiations is in our confidence and it is hardly necessary for me to say will be, because that is not the way that big plans are formulated and carried out.

The vaudeville theatres that are purchased will be operated by the Inited States Amusement Co. and the legitimate theatres that are acquired will be conducted in conjunction with the theatrical syndicate. I desire it to be emphatically understood that the new corporation will be an institution entirely separate from the United States Amusement Co. and the syndi-cate, but it will work in harmony with and prove beneficial to both. SIGHTLESS ORATOR OF OKLA HOMA MAY BE SENATOR.

Rich Aspirants for Nomination Are Side-Tracked for Him-Career of Remarkable Politician - A Lawyer by Profession.

Oklahoma City, Okla,-Totally blind since his early youth, yet able to disthe Democratic nomination for United States senator in the recent Oklahoma primaries, Thomas P. Gore, of Lawton, is looked upon as one of the most remarkable men in the southwest. His election is regarded as almost certain. Gore was opposed for the nomination by two men of wealth, each of whom spent a small fortune in advertising and organization work. Few people in the proposed state be lieved that "the blind orator" would make even a respectable showing in the primaries. But, while others were speculating on results, Gore was making a 'grass root" campaign, speaking personally to nearly every farmer and laboring man in the two territories. To get the necessary means to travel over the state he placed a mortgage on his home at Lawton, staking all on the results of the primaries.

Gore will, if elected, be the first blind man to occupy a seat in congress. At the age of eight he lost his left eye, a playmate accidentally striking him with a stick; and at the age of 11 he lost the other through being hit by an arrow.

Notwithstanding this affliction, Mr. Gore is a man of superior education and is noted as an orator. He was born 36 years ago in what is now Webster county, Miss., and at the time that he became blind he was page in the Mississippi state senate and lived at the house of United States Senator J. Z. George. From that time until he reached the age of 16 Mr. Gore studied at home, his mother and sister instructing him and reading to him. His favorite book was "The Lives of Self-Made Men," and from this volume he says he gained much that has been beneficial to him in later years.

(Blind Man Who May Be United States Senator from Oklahoma.)

He was graduated from the schools at Walthal, Miss., long before he attained his majority, and in 1891 he was nominated for the legislature, but not having reached the required age he was disqualified for the office. Then he taught school for several years, went to Texas for a time, and has lived in Oklahoma ten years.

Since reaching voting age Mr. Gore has been aligned with the Democratic party, but declined to support Mr. Cleveland during his first campaign. He has been a strong supporter of national union Wednesday H. J. Con- Bryan, and in Bryan's last campaign made many speeches for him in western states. He has been foremost in Democratic party councils in the new state and has taken an active part in all recent elections. Mr. Gore is well informed on current events and his understanding is said to be most acute. His wife and brother read to him, and in this way he keeps closely in touch with all public happenings. He knows the history, political and otherwise, of all the prominent men in Oklahoma and Indian territory, and is intimately acquainted with them. With conditions in Oklahoma he is Knights of the Maccabees of the thoroughly conversant and his memory concerning statistics, etc., is remarkable.

At the request of many members and others he attended the sessions of the constitutional convention, and many of his ideas have found their way into the measures adopted by that body.

Mr. Gore was a member of the last territorial council and took an active part in the discussion of legislative bills. He has practiced law since he has lived in Oklahoma and his cases generally are prepared with the utmost precision and with an attention to technical details that is considered wonderful when the physical disability of the man is taken into account.

tor last August. He was born in Moscow, Ala., Sept 13, 1842. He is selfeducated and is a farmer. He served four years in the confederate army, being wounded three times. Mr Bankhead represented his county in the Alabama general assembly for three years and in the state senate for two years. In 1881 he was made warden of the Alabama penitentiary, serving four years.

He then went to congress, serving in the Fiftieth congress and in every successive one until March 4 last, when he retired, being defeated for reelection by Capt Richmond Pearson Hobson, the hero of the Merrimac adventure at Santiago. This defeat was the direct cause of his selection as alternate senator in the recent pri mary. Mr. Bankhead is well loved throughout Alabama, and the sympathy occasioned for him by the vic tory of Hobson resulted in thousands of votes for him.
